Prayer for the Beginning of the School Year

Lord Jesus, we ask for Your help as we begin this new school year. Allow us to experience Your presence in the many blessings You put before us. Open our eyes to the new friends and new teachers. Give us a generous spirit to be enthusiastic with our studies and courage to accept new opportunities. Help us to be attentive to one another and let us experience Your presence in our new friends. Jesus, inspire us to do our best this year!

Amen.

Item 2

Tomorrow we pause as a city and nation to remember those who lost their lives in the terrorist attacks of 9/11 upon our city, our nation's capital and a field in Pennsylvania. We admire the courage of our first responders who, without counting the cost, put themselves in harm's way and gave their lives in an attempt to save others.

Item 3

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11-Sacred Heart Catholic Academy- 9/11 Memorial Wreath Laying at Flagpole in front of the Church- 1:00 P.M.

Item 4

On the stand next to the Baptismal Font is a notebook in which you can write your prayer requests or intentions which I will carry with me when I go on pilgrimage to the Holy Land. I will place that notebook on the altar in all the holy places- Nazareth, Bethlehem, Calvary, etc. – and remember your prayer intentions that are contained therein. The notebook will be there until I leave on September 22.

Item 5

This weekend there will be a second collection for the people who are suffering from the devastating effects of the fires in Hawaii; please be as generous as possible to help our fellow citizens whose lives have been thrown into turmoil by this event. Please use your own envelope for the collection- make sure you print your name and address on the envelope and if you remember it, your envelope number. Thank you and God bless you for your generosity

Item 6

NEXT SUNDAY-- SEPTEMBER 17, IS ALSO OUR FIRST FAMILY MASS OF THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR AND AT THE END OF MASS WE WILL HAVE OUR ANNUAL BLESSING OF BACKPACKS AND SCHOOL SUPPLIES FOR ALL STUDENTS no matter where you attend school or what grade you are in. FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Item 8

On Saturday, October 7, Bishop Brennan invites you to join him and your fellow Catholics to participate in a Eucharistic Revival to be held at MAIMONIDES PARK, 1904 Surf Avenue, Brooklyn (Coney Island) from 8:00 A.M.-3:00 P.M.. (This is the stadium where the Brooklyn Cyclones play baseball.) The day will be filled with time for Eucharistic Adoration, a Eucharistic Procession, Mass, Catechesis, Praise and Worship and Benediction. If you would like to attend you must register by calling the parish. Transportation to and from the venue is on your own. What a wonderful opportunity to join together to praise Our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Our Deanery tried to rent a bus for that day, but the bus companies were booked up. Also, since there is no rain date if it rains on October 7 and the Revival cannot take place the parishes would lose the money they put out for the bus.

I am trying to see if there are alternative ways to go, perhaps a van service, to get those parishioners who are interested in attending the Revival, to the stadium. If you are interested in attending please call the rectory and leave your name and phone number by next Sunday, September 17.

Item 9

Our Deanery will host an evening of EUCHARISTIC ADORATION as part of our celebration of the Eucharistic Revival taking place in our nation. The Eucharistic Adoration will take place on the evening of THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26 at St. Anastasia's Church, Douglaston. We will be led in prayer and song by FATHER CHARLES MANGANO. More information will be forthcoming in future bulletins.

Item 10

Please remember that the Eucharistic Revival in our nation will culminate with a EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS to take place from July 17-21, 2024, in Indianapolis, Indiana. The Diocese is having a pilgrimage to the Eucharistic Congress; please contact Peter's Way: Toll Free: (800) 225-7662; Phone: (516) 605-1551; Email: peter@petersway.com.

Item 11

WE ARE OVER GOAL! WE ARE OVER GOAL!

WE have gone over goal in ACA 2023. I cannot, as your Pastor thank you enough for your generous response to the annual appeal.

Our goal was the same as last year- $91,954.00.

As of September 5, $116,355.00 has been pledged and $108,657.87 has been paid in full. 174 generous donors have already participated in this year's ACA.

Item 12

The new A/C and fence cost $300,000.00 The security system is on hold AS WE ARE DEALING WITH ROOF/GUTTERS/FLASHING ISSUES that are still trying to be resolved. Another Generations of Faith project is the painting of the church which cannot begin until we are certain that all the leaks are dealt with first.

113 parishioners and friends have contributed to the appeal thus far donating $97,585.00.. THANK YOU to all who have contributed to this project thus far. May God reward you for your goodness. N.B. A special thank you to those parishioners (and there are quite a few) who have made a second and third (and some a fourth and fifth!) contribution to this appeal!

IF YOU HAVE NOT REPONDED TO THIS APPEAL AS OF NOW I ASK THAT YOU PRAYERFULLY CONSIDER DOING SO TO HELP WITH THIS BILL.

Item 13

The bathrooms in the church hall are 98% complete. There are a few small things that must be installed and for which we are waiting to arrive- mirrors, baby changing stations, drain covers. This project was funded by your generous donations to the GENERATIONS of FAITH CAMPAIGN.

Item 14

When making your last will and testament please remember your parish. Your parish will be grateful to you and remember you in our prayers.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Item 15

LEGION of MARY-We have been asked if there are any parishioners who are interested in starting Legion of Mary groups in our parish- one in English and one in Spanish. Three Spanish speaking parishioners have, and one English speaking parishioner have expressed an interest thus far. CLOW MASS

"Sometimes, moreover, if the place itself and the nature of the community permit, it will be appropriate to celebrate the Liturgy of the Word, including a homily, with the children in a separate, but not too distant room. Then, before the Eucharistic Liturgy begins, the children are led to the place where the adults have meanwhile celebrated their own liturgy of the word."

—Directory for Masses with Children, #17

The above permission, which appeared in 1973, lies behind a phenomenon which has emerged in many Catholic parishes over the past few years, namely the celebration of a separate Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) during Sunday mass.

Please join us on the following Sundays at the 10:00 mass.

What is CLOW?

During mass, after the opening prayer, children Pre-K through 6th grade, are invited to go to the church hall to hear the readings of the day proclaimed and explained in age appropriate language. The children rejoin their families during the preparation of the gifts at the offertory. Younger children are often accompanied by their parents.

Join us on the following Sundays:

September 24, October 15, November 12, December 10, January 21, February 11, March 10, April 21, May 12, (Mother's Day) June 16,

A Two-Way Challenge

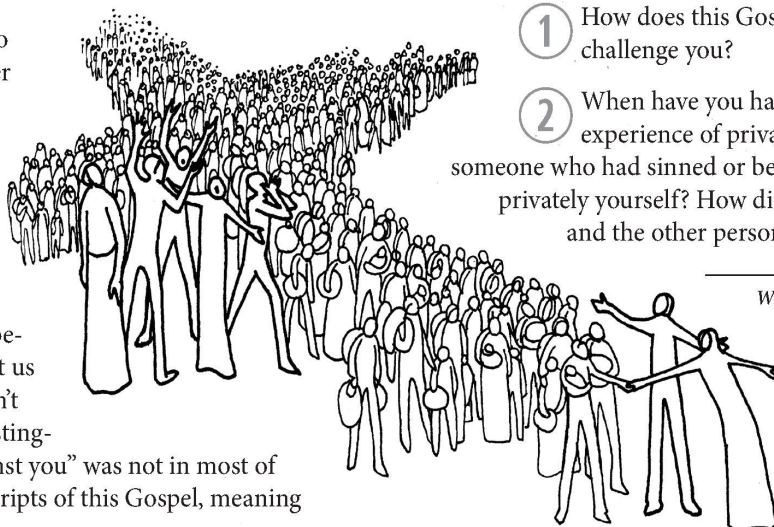

This Week's Readings at Mass

- Ezekiel 33:7-9 • The prophet a watchman
- Romans 13:8-10 • Love fulfills the Law
- Matthew 18:15-20 • Fraternal correction

The first reading and the Gospel reading today both address the responsibility of believers to call out and name injustice and sinfulness when they see it. In the Old Testament reading, God tells the prophet, Ezekiel, that he must speak out to dissuade wicked people from doing harm, or he will be responsible for their deaths. Likewise, Jesus gives his disciples instructions for confronting those who have done wrong.

Jesus' teaching in the Gospel reading today about reconciling someone who has sinned is a challenge for two kinds of Christians. First, it is a challenge to those in the Church community who judge others publicly—boldly proclaiming in print, from the pulpit, or in the media. It is often easier for an accuser to go public with an accusation than address the matter privately and with more humility and sensitivity first. Jesus is asking such accusers to do the hard work of personal conversation first, which may have the effect of helping the accuser to grow in understanding and acceptance of the “sinner.” (Of course, Jesus isn't asking people to put themselves in danger to do so, for example, asking a victim to approach her rapist in private.)

Jesus' words are also a challenge for other Christians who are too hesitant or timid to call out sinfulness and injustice when they see it. Sometimes we let injustice continue because it doesn't hurt us directly—the sin isn't “against” us. Interestingly, the phrase “against you” was not in most of the ancient manuscripts of this Gospel, meaning

© Jean Denton flock.pastoralcenter.com

“Whatever you bind on earth is bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”

Sheepish Question:
What is it about the good news of Jesus that I'm keeping from people I love? Why?

it was probably added later. So Jesus was calling on his disciples to privately point out their brother's sin (before escalating to a broader audience), regardless of whether they were directly impacted. Jesus is asking for courage here to stand up for any victim who is hurt by another's behavior. When a white person confronts another white person privately for a racist comment, that is the first step toward growth and reconciliation.

Questions of the Week

- 1 How does this Gospel reading most challenge you?
- 2 When have you had a growthful experience of privately confronting someone who had sinned or being confronted privately yourself? How did it change you and the other person?

Fun with Exalting the Holy Cross | Catholic All Year w/ Kendra Tierney

In honor of the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on September 14, let's talk about . . . talking to kids about Jesus' suffering. Plus a family-friendly at-home Veneration of the Cross, and our favorite feast day foods.

Drawing Strength from Our Lady of Sorrows by Kimberly Hahn

Speaker and author Kimberly Hahn, is a convert to the Catholic Faith. Although honoring Mary was difficult for her to understand initially, she began to encounter Mary's loving guidance in little ways on a daily basis. In this presentation, Kimberly reflects on the joys and sorrows that Mary prayerfully experienced during her time on earth, and shares how her example leads us closer to Christ.

Our Lady of Sorrows and the Power of Prayer

Discover the value of redemptive motherhood by tuning in to Anna Mitchell, co-host of EWTN's "The Son Rise Morning Show." Anna shares the story of her five-year-old's serious illness along with the miraculous intercession of a fourth-century martyr.
