FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Item 1

October is the Month of the Holy Rosary. Please try to say at least a decade of the Rosary every day of the month. Try to say the Rosary as a family each day. Pray for peace in the world, in our country, in our city, in our families. Pray for vocations to the Priesthood and Consecrated Life. The Rosary is a powerful weapon against the forces of evil- the devil hates the Rosary. St. Pope John Paul II called it his favorite prayer. Blessed Carlo Acutis called it the shortest ladder to heaven. So many saints throughout the ages attested to its power. More now, than ever before, we need to use this spiritual weapon to fight against the forces of evil in our world!

CLOW MASS

"Sometimes, moreover, if the place itself and the nature of the community permit, it will be appropriate to celebrate the Liturgy of the Word, including a homily, with the children in a separate, but not too distant room. Then, before the Eucharistic Liturgy begins, the children are led to the place where the adults have meanwhile celebrated their own liturgy of the word." —

Directory for Masses with Children,
#17

The above permission, which appeared in 1973, lies behind a phenomenon which has emerged in many Catholic parishes over the past few years, namely the celebration of a separate Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) during Sunday mass.

Please join us on the following
Sundays at the 10:00 mass.

What is CLOW?

During mass, after the opening prayer, children Pre-K through 6th grade, are invited to go to the church hall to hear the readings of the day proclaimed and explained in age appropriate language. The children rejoin their families during the preparation of the gifts at the offertory. Younger children are often accompanied by their parents.

Join us on the following Sundays:
October 15, November 12, December 10, January 21, February 11, March 10, April 21, May 12, (Mother's Day) June 16

Never Too Late to Change

This Week's Readings at Mass

- Ezekiel 18:25-28 • Personal responsibility
- Philippians 2:1-11 • Imitating the humility of Christ
- Matthew 21:28-32 • Parable of the two sons

All three readings today give advice and encouragement for every person to live an upstanding life. The first reading from Ezekiel does this by way of a threat that was in keeping with how the ancient Jews thought of life and death. The idea of everlasting heaven and hell hadn't developed yet, so they didn't believe in the afterlife as we do. They thought that if you don't live a just and virtuous life, your punishment would be an early death. On the flip side, if you lived well, you would earn yourself a longer life. It's not hard to imagine how that thinking developed into the Christian understanding that how we live on earth will determine our fate for the afterlife. Jesus, and later St. Paul, expanded on this idea by stressing that God's mercy and grace reach beyond human behavior. We don't earn our salvation—God grants it.

Jesus' parable today seems straight-forward. It's better for a child ultimately to do what he or she was asked, even if they didn't agree to it initially. The chief priests and elders knew right away that is the preferred outcome compared to a son who promises something but doesn't follow through. So what is the point of the parable? It seems so obvious.

The kicker comes when we think about who Jesus is addressing here. He is talking to the chief priests and elders, the ones who thought they were the good ones, the righteous ones, the virtuous, chosen ones who deserved to be handed the Kingdom of Heaven because of their good behavior. Yet he points out that when John the Baptist came preaching repentance, inclusion, and economic and social justice, they dismissed him and ignored his message. On the other hand, the tax collectors and prostitutes (people looked down upon and ridiculed by the chief priest and elders) listened and heeded John the Baptist. They had the humility to recognize they needed to ask forgiveness and change their ways, and they did. Suddenly, Jesus' point becomes clear—it's never too late to change our ways, ask for forgiveness, and be welcomed into the Kingdom. On the other hand, if we say we want to do God's will, but never get around to it, we are no better than the hypocritical chief priests and elders.

“Humbly regard others as more important than yourselves.”

Sheepish Question:
When have I been humbled by serving someone in need? How?

Questions of the Week

- 1 Who do you usually relate most to—the first or second son? Why?
- 2 Is there something God might be asking you to do that you are putting off or resisting?
