FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Item 1

October is the Month of the Holy Rosary. Please try to say at least a decade of the Rosary every day of the month. Try to say the Rosary as a family each day. Pray for peace in the world, in our country, in our city, in our families. Pray for vocations to the Priesthood and Consecrated Life. The Rosary is a powerful weapon against the forces of evil- the devil hates the Rosary. St. Pope John Paul II called it his favorite prayer. Blessed Carlo Acutis called it the shortest ladder to heaven. So many saints throughout the ages attested to its power. More now, than ever before, we need to use this spiritual weapon to fight against the forces of evil in our world!

THANK YOU to all who have contributed to this project thus far. May God reward you for your goodness.

Item 10

When making your last will and testament please remember your parish. Your parish will be grateful to you and remember you in our prayers.

Item 11

ANYONE INTERESTED WILL HAVE UNTIL THE END OF OCTOBER TO MAKE THEIR DESIRE KNOWN TO ME SO WE CAN SEE IF WE CAN HAVE A LEGION CHAPTER HERE AT SHJ (Just a note: last Saturday, Fr. Kieran gave a Day of Recollection to the Legions of Mary from throughout our Diocese at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington)

LEGION of MARY- We have been asked if there are any parishioners who are interested in starting Legion of Mary groups in our parish- one in English and one in Spanish. "Sometimes, moreover, if the place itself and the nature of the community permit, it will be appropriate to celebrate the Liturgy of the Word, including a homily, with the children in a separate, but not too distant room. Then, before the Eucharistic Liturgy begins, the children are led to the place where the adults have meanwhile celebrated their own liturgy of the word." —

Directory for Masses with Children,

John XXIII: The Pope of Peace

This movie tells the life story of John XXIII from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as cardinal, and eventually his life as pope. Elected supposedly as an "interim Pope" who would just keep the status quo and listen to the advisers around him, John XXIII proved to be his own man when he surprised the Church and world by calling for the Second Vatican Council.

Father Elijah: An Apocalypse by Michael D. O'Brien

This audiobook explores the state of the world and the faith through the story of Father Elijah, a Carmelite priest sent on a mission for the Vatican that leads to crises and conflicts ultimately affecting the fate of the Church.

Look to the Good Things

This Week's Readings at Mass

- Isaiah 5:1-7 • The vineyard song
- Philippians 4:6-9 • Joy and peace in Christ
- Matthew 21:33-43 • Parable of the tenants

We don't often focus on the second reading from the epistles, but Paul has a particularly beautiful message for us this week.

The words in Paul's letter to the Philippians are timeless in their comfort and encouragement, especially considering that historians think Paul wrote them while he was imprisoned. By the time of this writing, Paul had suffered immensely as a result of his faith. During his travels throughout the Mediterranean world teaching and preaching about Jesus, Paul had been arrested, beaten, imprisoned, chased out of town, shipwrecked, gone hungry, and bitten by a poisonous snake. Yet at times, he was still able to feel profound peace and gratitude and offer his troubles to God in prayer. We know from some of his other letters that he didn't always feel that way—there were times he agonized about how difficult his life journey was. But here he is in a good space, confident and trusting.

Paul's encouragement to "have no anxiety at all" may be easier said than done. Sometimes we can't just turn off our anxiety. Other times, though, just the reminder that we can bring our fears and concerns to God in prayer can bring some relief and a sense of peace.

Paul's next piece of advice, to focus on the good, is just as pertinent today as it was for him during a time of great suffering and unrest. Anyone who follows the news or is attentive to the immense pain in the world today knows how easy it is to feel overwhelmed by bad news: natural disasters, racism, poverty,

Sheepish Question:
How and with whom shall I SHARE the peace of God in Christ Jesus today?

illness, etc. The media feeds us the more sensationalized stories—focusing on the one plane that crashes rather than the many that land safely each day. Paul isn't telling us to bury our heads in the sand and ignore difficult things but to turn our attention to all of the ways God is active and present in the world: in matters of beauty and truth and honor. This advice is an antidote just as needed today as any time in history.

Questions of the Week

- 1 Have you ever had an experience of being anxious but then finding peace through prayer?
- 2 What are some true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, or gracious things in your life right now to which you are invited to give more attention?
