FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Item 1

This week we observe National Vocations Awareness Week. Please pray that young people may listen to the voice of the Lord and be open to His call to serve Him and His Church as priests, deacons and consecrated religious. Make an effort to join us at our Holy Hour on Thursdays during which we especially pray for an increase in vocations to the Priesthood and consecrated life. Perhaps you can pray

Bishop's Prayer for Vocations

Almighty God, we turn to you at this hour with all our hearts.

Hear our prayer as we ask for an increase of Vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate, and Religious Life to serve your Church in Brooklyn and Queens.

May we always have the ministers we need to stand at Your Altars, administer Your Sacraments, and lead Your People on the path to Heaven. We pray that we will always be attentive to Your Call and that if today we hear Your Voice, we may not harden our hearts; rather, that we have the courage to respond with generosity.

We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

+Bishop Robert J. Brennan

Item 2

THE RECTORY OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED ON FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, IN HONOR OF VETERAN'S DAY.

As we observe Veterans Day this week let us offer our profound thanks to the men and women of our Armed Forces.

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces. Give them courage, hope and strength. May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light. To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.

Let us also remember those men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice and gave their lives for our freedom while serving our country. May God reward them for their sacrifice.

Item 3

November is the MONTH of the HOLY SOULS in PURGATORY, and we are invited to pray for all our deceased friends and relatives. Envelopes to submit the names of those you wish to be prayed for are in your envelope packet and are available at the back of the church and by the side entrance. These envelopes, with the names of your deceased loved ones, will remain in a basket near the altar throughout the month of November and will be prayed for each day. You may still fill one out with the names of those you wish us to remember in prayer throughout this month.

As we are reminded in the Scriptures: "It is a good and pious thing to pray for the dead." Remember the offering of Mass for a deceased person and praying for them are two means to help a soul in Purgatory. Let us remember that one day we might be where they are now and will be hoping that someone's prayers will assist us.

Item 4

I have been informed that Bishop Brennan has assigned a transitional deacon to our parish. DEACON TOBECHUKWU OFFIAH was ordained yesterday, November 4, at St. Joseph's Seminary, Yonkers and will begin his assignment here the following Saturday, November 11. Deacon Tobe will be with us from Friday evening/ Saturday evening until Sunday evening; he will stay in the rectory and share rectory life with Fr. Kieran and myself. Deacon Tobe's family are members of St. Clement Pope Parish in South Ozone Park.

Deacons can preside at Baptisms, officiate at weddings, preach during Mass, officiate at Holy Hours/ Benediction, distribute Holy Communion at Mass and take Communion to the homebound, bless objects and people, conduct wake services and burial/graveside services. Deacon "Tobe" will be with us until April 21, 2024. We look forward to welcoming him into our parish family.

"Sometimes, moreover, if the place itself and the nature of the community permit, it will be appropriate to celebrate the Liturgy of the Word, including a homily, with the children in a separate, but not too distant room. Then, before the Eucharistic Liturgy begins, the children are led to the place where the adults have meanwhile celebrated their own liturgy of the word."

—Directory for Masses with Children, #17

The above permission, which appeared in 1973, lies behind a phenomenon which has emerged in many Catholic parishes over the past few years, namely the celebration of a separate Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) during Sunday mass.

Please join us on the following
Sundays at the 10:00 mass.

What is CLOW?

During mass, after the opening prayer, children Pre-K through 6th grade, are invited to go to the church hall to hear the readings of the day proclaimed and explained in age appropriate language. The children rejoin their families during the preparation of the gifts at the offertory. Younger children are often accompanied by their parents.

This BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE reminds us that those who have gone before us continue to live on in our minds and hearts. Therefore, all are invited to inscribe the names of their beloved dead in this book. They will be remembered throughout the month of November at all our Sunday liturgies.

Conflict Heats Up

This Week's Readings at Mass

- Malachi 1:14b-2:2b, 8-10 Imperfect Sacrifices
- 1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13 – Paul's Sincerity
- Matthew 23:1-12 – Hypocrisy of the Scribes and Pharisees

Two chapters earlier in this Gospel, Jesus entered Jerusalem and its enormously important Temple, the epicenter of religious authority and worship in his day. The moment he appeared on the scene in the Temple, the religious leaders pounced, accusing him of teaching without the proper authority (read: he didn't go to their schools/he didn't have "their" degree/"their" education). When he pushed back against them, they began to plan his arrest.

In this reading, Jesus turns his attention away from his critics to the crowds and his disciples and teaches a version of "do as they say, not as they do." He acknowledges that the scribes and Pharisees have positions of teaching authority, but he calls them out for not practicing what they preach.

Historically, the Pharisees were known for adding more regulations to the laws of Moses (the Hebrew Scriptures/Old Testament). Their intent was originally a good one—to avoid breaking a law, they created even more specific restrictive ones to ensure they wouldn't come close to violating it. For example, the commandment to keep the Sabbath day holy developed many corollaries so that eventually even picking up your sleeping mat on the Sabbath was against the law because it was considered "work." (That is why the man Jesus healed on the Sabbath got in trouble—he picked up his mat to walk away once Jesus healed him.) This was Jesus' meaning when he criticized the leaders for tying up heavy burdens on others and not lifting a finger to help.

Likewise, Jesus accuses the Pharisees of showing off in their public religious observances. The phylacteries were little leather boxes containing scripture verses that Jews wore on their arms and foreheads during morning prayer. The "fringes" Jesus refers to were tassels Jews wore on the corners of their outer garments. Making them bigger only served to make them more prominent so others wouldn't miss that they were praying. Likewise, Jesus called out the leaders who liked to sit in places of honor and be addressed by the title rabbi, meaning "my teacher." His point? The leaders are meant to be servants of all, and those who are naturally humble are the ones who will ultimately be exalted.

Sheepish Question:

When have I sought to be honored? Specifically, how can I honor another by serving him or her?

Questions of the Week

1 Discuss some examples of leaders (secular or religious) who you notice are not practicing what they preach.

2 Share about someone you know who is a person of humility who you wish would be honored.
