FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Item 1

THE CONFUSION THAT COMES WITH CHRISTMAS EVE FALLING ON A SUNDAY- I will try to explain this to you as simply as I can ( although, as a Canon Lawyer, that might not be possible-□). It is basically this- YOU CANNOT FULFILL TWO OBLIGATIONS AT ONE MASS. If you go to the 4 PM Christmas Eve Mass it cannot be to fulfill both your Sunday and Christmas obligation.

Item 2

Fr. Kieran, and I would like to thank you for the cards, fruit and food baskets, cakes and cookies, wine and candy, gift cards and monetary gifts that you have given to us on Christmas. It means a lot to both of us since Fr. Kieran's family is in Nigeria and he is far from them, and all my immediate family has gone home to the Lord so, you made us feel like we are part of your families. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts. May God bless you for your goodness and generosity!

Fr. Kieran will, however, be going home to Nigeria right after Christmas and will return at the end of January. We wish him a safe trip and a relaxing visit with his parents, siblings, family and friends. Please extend our warmest wishes to your mom and dad Fr. Kieran- from all of us here at Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Item 3

THE RECTORY OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED ON MONDAY, DECEMBER 25 and TUESDAY, DECEMBER 26. & WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 27. The office will reopen on THURSDAY, December 28. THE RECTORY OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED ON MONDAY, JANUARY 1 and reopen on Tuesday, January 2., 2024.

Item 4

The second collection last weekend, December 16-17 was for MY CHRISTMAS GIFT TO THE CHURCH. This envelope is for your special or extraordinary gift to the parish as we celebrate Christmas and is dated December 17. It is DIFFERENT from the CHRISTMAS OFFERING envelope that is in your packet and dated December 25. You may still drop these in the collection or drop them off at the rectory. Please be as generous as you can be in giving your parish a Gift this Christmas.

The Christmas OFFERING envelope is for the collection on Christmas Day and is the "regular" holyday offering.

THESE ARE TWO DIFFERENT COLLECTIONS on TWO DIFFERENT DATES with TWO DIFFERENT INTENTIONS/PURPOSES. This seems to always cause some confusion, so I hope this explanation clarifies the situation a bit. Thank you in advance for your generosity to our parish. May God reward you!

Item 5

CHRISTMAS NOVENA of MASSES--You may still enroll both the living and deceased family and friends in the Christmas Novena. All the Masses of Christmas and the Octave of Christmas will be offered for the names submitted to us on the envelopes. Envelopes for this purpose are in your envelope packet and are also available around the Church. Please place your Christmas Novena envelope in the collection basket or drop it off in the sacristy or at the rectory. PLEASE DO NOT put your envelopes in the basket on the altar with your monetary offering inside the envelope.

Item 6

You may still contribute toward the cost of the Christmas Flowers and Decoration- for both inside and outside the church and church property. As in the past years those who donate $30 or more will have their names and the name of the deceased in whose memory the donation was made or the name of the person in whose name the donation was made printed in a special insert in the bulletin after Christmas. Everyone always compliments the beauty of our church at Christmas, but we must remember that it does entail a cost to keep the church and church property looking festive for Christmas. The bill for putting up the outside decorations, taking them down and then having them kept in storage- the wreaths are too large to be stored here- has already arrived - $ 4, 903.50. Please be as generous as you can in this collection.

Item 7

On Wednesday, December 27, the Feast of St. John the Evangelist, please bring your bottles of wine from home to be blessed at Mass. The custom of blessing wine on this day stems from the fact that the miracle of the Wedding Feast at Cana- the changing of water into wine is only recorded in the Gospel of St. John, hence the blessing of wine on his feast day.

CLOW MASS

"Sometimes, moreover, if the place itself and the nature of the community permit, it will be appropriate to celebrate the Liturgy of the Word, including a homily, with the children in a separate, but not too distant room. Then, before the Eucharistic Liturgy begins, the children are led to the place where the adults have meanwhile celebrated their own liturgy of the word."

—Directory for Masses with Children, #17

The above permission, which appeared in 1973, lies behind a phenomenon which has emerged in many Catholic parishes over the past few years, namely the celebration of a separate Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) during Sunday mass.

Please join us on the following Sundays at the 10:00 mass.

What is CLOW?

During mass, after the opening prayer, children Pre-K through 6th grade, are invited to go to the church hall to hear the readings of the day proclaimed and explained in age appropriate language. The children rejoin their families during the preparation of the gifts at the offertory. Younger children are often accompanied by their parents.

Join us on the following Sundays:

Although the Eucharist appears to be simple bread and wine, it is actually the “source and summit” of the Christian life. Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist explores the truth and beauty of Christ’s real presence in the Eucharist, from its origins in Sacred Scripture to its profound role in the life of the Church and its members. ## The True Meaning of Christmas | Lukas Storyteller

Christmas is coming and our friends Peter, Agnes, Paul and Anna expect to receive many gifts. but when they caught in one of their antics. Lukas and Noah will help them understand the true story of Christmas and how the birth of the Son of God should change our hearts.

Christmas | Sacred Art

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they look at the painting Adoration of the Shepherds by Gerard van Honthorst to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord. This famous painting reveals the Christ Child as the light that has come into the world and also depicts the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, and the shepherds to be models of adoration to our humble Lord who came as a helpless baby.

The 12 Days of Christmas

We are excited to announce our series of FORMED Now! Christmas and New Year special episodes. In these episodes, professors from the Augustine Institute Graduate School will lead us in reflections throughout the season.

Our parish has a FORMED subscription.
Visit signup.formed.org and select our parish name.

We're All God's Favorites

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ 2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8b-12, 14a, 16 - The Lord's promises to David
- ▶ Romans 16:25-27 - To God be the glory
- ▶ Luke 1:26-38 - The Annunciation of the Lord

Can you imagine God looking upon you as a "favored one"? Maybe not, because you know you don't live up to Mary's example and her ability to say yes to whatever God is asking of her. It's easy to dismiss even the possibility that God would come to us like the angel Gabriel came to Mary. Okay, it's true, the angel Gabriel won't come to our town and ask us to birth God's son, but that doesn't mean God looks on us as any less worthy of favor. The Scriptures tell us in many ways that God looks upon us all as "favored ones," that the Lord is with us now, and that we need not be afraid of whatever life's circumstances are.

Jesus went out of his way to spend time with those whom most of society considered unworthy. Isn't that one way of telling them that they were favored? He traveled all over Galilee on foot with a rag-tag crew he called friends—poor, illiterate fishermen whom most people wouldn't have considered "favored." As he did so, he stopped to heal and teach and remind his listeners that God loves them beyond the capacity for humans to love them. Jesus also repeated what angels in the Old Testament and the angel Gabriel said to Mary. "Do not be afraid," they all said, when the people they addressed had every reason to be troubled or afraid.

Then there are all the times Jesus praised the people he taught, healed, and met. He praised their simple faith, their honesty ("I believe. Help my unbelief," one man told Jesus), their courage in challenging him (the Syro-Phoenician woman), and their willingness to help their friends (those who lowered the paralytic man through the roof). In Jesus' appreciation and amazement at other people, wasn't he telling them they had found favor with God too?

Rather than distancing ourselves from Mary in this reading, what if we imagine ourselves being addressed by an angel, Jesus, or God in this way? God calls us favored ones and tells us the Lord is with us. God encourages us to not be afraid and tells us we have found favor with him. Can we believe it?

Questions of the Week

- 1 What is your response to this idea of being personally addressed by God as favored?
- 2 When in your life have you felt yourself particularly blessed or favored by God somehow?
