FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Item 1

Yesterday, February 3 was the Feast of St. Blaise. On this day it is a tradition to have your throat blessed. We will bless throats after ALL the Masses this weekend for your convenience.

Item 2

The painting of the church and the refurbishing of our pews will begin shortly. Please bear with us as this work is in progress. There may be times when certain areas of the church are roped off and you will not be able to sit in your favorite seat-please just be patient with us..... the beauty of the church after all the work is complete will be well worth it!

Item 3

DUE TO THE WORK TAKING PLACE IN THE CHURCH THE THURSDAY AFTERNOON HOLY HOURS at 1:00 P.M. ARE CANCELLED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE. THE CANCELLATION IS NECESSARY SO THAT THE WORK CAN BE COMPLETED AS EXPEDITIOUSLY AS POSSIBLE. THANK YOU FOR YOUR UNDERSTANDING.

Item 4

Friday, February 2 was Candlemas Day, also known as the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus Christ and the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary; it is a day on which we commemorate the presentation of Jesus at the Temple.. On Candlemas, candles are blessed and then used for the rest of the year; for Christians, these blessed candles serve as a symbol of Jesus Christ, who referred to Himself as the Light of the World. These blessed candles are lit at times of prayer and at the difficult moments of life- like during a severe storm or when the priest is coming to bring Communion to the gravely ill or dying. Blessed candles are available up at the altar after Mass. There are two candles in the box and the suggested offering for the box is $7.00.

CLOW MASS

"Sometimes, moreover, if the place itself and the nature of the community permit, it will be appropriate to celebrate the Liturgy of the Word, including a homily, with the children in a separate, but not too distant room. Then, before the Eucharistic Liturgy begins, the children are led to the place where the adults have meanwhile celebrated their own liturgy of the word."

—Directory for Masses with Children, #17

The above permission, which appeared in 1973, lies behind a phenomenon which has emerged in many Catholic parishes over the past few years, namely the celebration of a separate Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) during Sunday mass.

Please join us on the following Sundays at the 10:00 mass.

What is CLOW?

During mass, after the opening prayer, children Pre-K through 6th grade, are invited to go to the church hall to hear the readings of the day proclaimed and explained in age appropriate language. The children rejoin their families during the preparation of the gifts at the offertory. Younger children are often accompanied by their parents.

Join us on the following Sundays:

February 11, March 10, April 21, May 12, (Mother's Day) June 16

It Feels Good to Go Back to Work

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Job 7:1-4, 6-7 - Job's first reply
- ▶ 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23 - Paul's recompense
- ▶ Mark 1:29-39 - Cure of Peter's mother-in-law and other miracles

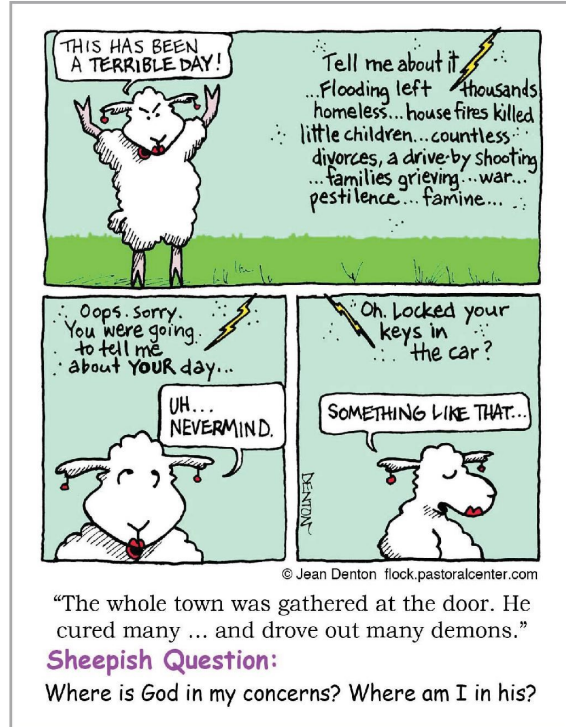

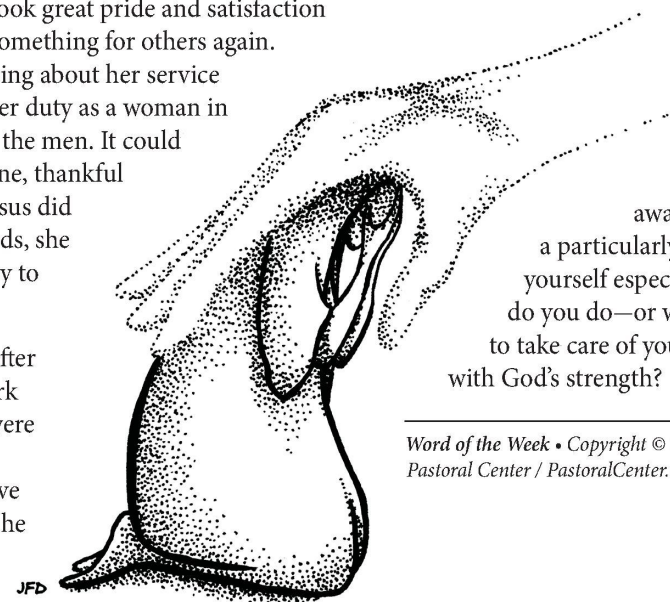

People sometimes take notice that as soon as Jesus heals Simon's mother-in-law, she gets up and begins to wait on him and his friends, presumably including her own son-in-law. There she was sick in bed, and when she is healed, she had to go right back to work serving others? It doesn't quite seem fair to us now.

Yet there's another way to look at this scene. If you or anyone you know has been seriously or chronically sick, injured, or disabled, you may recognize the feeling of humility of not being able to help one's self and needing to rely on others for basic care. Being dependent on others can easily wound people's pride and make them question their self-worth. For some people, it leads to despair that they aren't "contributing" to the family or society and they may feel like they are a burden, even questioning why they are alive.

We don't know how long Simon's mother-in-law was sick or what exactly her illness was, but perhaps after she was healed she took great pride and satisfaction in being able to do something for others again.

Maybe she wasn't going about her service just because it was her duty as a woman in that culture to serve the men. It could have been her genuine, thankful response for what Jesus did for her. In other words, she may have been happy to go back to work.

The next morning, after all Jesus' healing work with so many who were sick or possessed by demons, he must have been exhausted, but he still gets up early to go off by himself to pray. His time alone might have been short-lived because the apostles found him and they headed off to other villages to continue his work.

Questions of the Week

- 1 Have you had the experience of being sick or injured and having to rely on others to do things for you that you wish you could do for yourself? What is it like?
- 2 Jesus gives us a great example of self-care in this passage when he goes away by himself to pray after a particularly busy day. When you find yourself especially busy or stressed, what do you do—or what would you like to do—to take care of yourself and get re-connected with God's strength?
