FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Item 1

On this Memorial Day Weekend let us stop and pray for the men and women who gave their lives in service to our country. They paid the ultimate price to protect the freedoms you and I enjoy, and they lived the words of Jesus: There is no greater love than to lay down your life for another. Let us also pray for all the men and women currently serving our nation around the world- may God protect them and keep them safe from all harm.
GOD BLESS AMERICA!

Item 2

As we come to the end of the month of May, please take the time to say the Rosary each of these last days of this month and ask Her for Her intercession in helping young men and women discern the call to the priesthood and consecrated life and, as Queen of Peace, for an end to the conflict in Ukraine.

Item 3

Of Course, as in the past, one parishioner made a pledge of $30,000 and paid the pledge in one payment for which, I am, as always, very grateful to that parishioner and those who have made a pledge thus far.

Again, many thanks to those who have already participated in ACA 2024 by making a pledge. If you have never made a pledge before to the ACA please consider making this year, the first year, you participate and make a pledge.

CLOW MASS

The last CLOW Mass for the school year will be held on Sunday, June 16th at 10 am

“Sometimes, moreover, if the place itself and the nature of the community permit, it will be appropriate to celebrate the Liturgy of the Word, including a homily, with the children in a separate, but not too distant room. Then, before the Eucharistic Liturgy begins, the children are let to the place where the adults have meanwhile celebrated their own liturgy of the word.”

The above permission, which appeared in 1973, lied behind a phenomenon which has emerged in many Catholic parishes over the past few years, namely the celebration of a separate Children’s Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) during Sunday Mass.

During mass, after the opening prayer, children Pre-K through 6th grade, are invited to go to the church hall to hear the reading of the day proclaimed and explained in age appropriate language. The children rejoin their families during the preparation of the gifts at the offertory. Younger children are often accompanied by their parents.

It's Okay to Be Conflicted

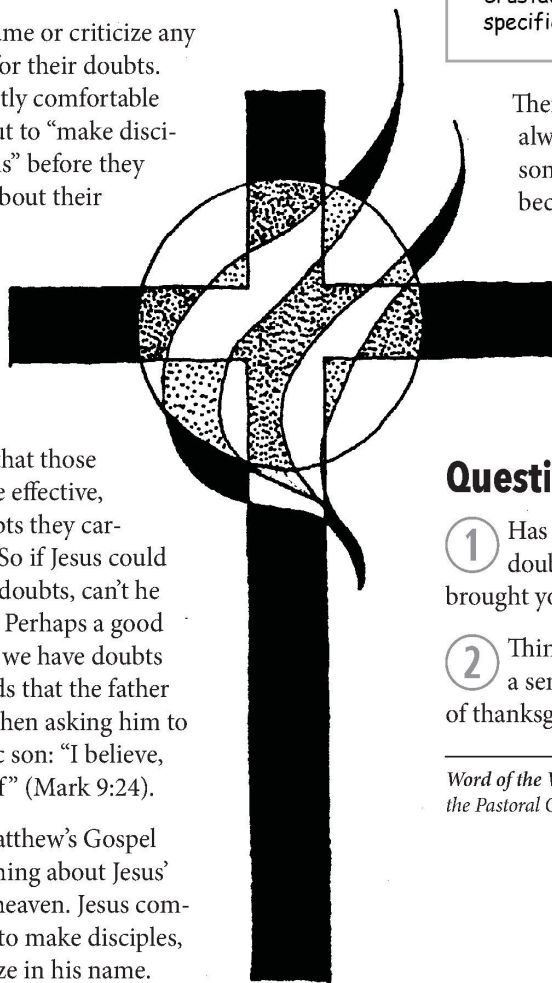

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40 - Proofs of God's love
- ▶ Romans 8:14-17 - Children of God through adoption
- ▶ Matthew 28:16-20 - Commission of the Apostles

The Gospel reading today is from the very last verses of Matthew's Gospel. The eleven disciples (Judas is no longer with them) have the experience of both worshipping and doubting. We don't know whether some of them worshipped Jesus while others doubted him, or if all of them had the conflicting experience of worshipping and doubting simultaneously. Either way, this detail by Matthew can be helpful to anyone in the 2,000 years since then who has struggled with doubts about Jesus.

Jesus doesn't shame or criticize any of the disciples for their doubts. He seems perfectly comfortable sending them out to "make disciples of all nations" before they are 100% clear about their faith. Because we and two billion other Christians in the world today worship Jesus, we know that those 11 disciples were effective, despite any doubts they carried with them. So if Jesus could work with their doubts, can't he work with ours? Perhaps a good prayer for when we have doubts include the words that the father spoke to Jesus when asking him to heal his epileptic son: "I believe, help my unbelief" (Mark 9:24).

Interestingly, Matthew's Gospel doesn't say anything about Jesus' Ascension into heaven. Jesus commissions the 11 to make disciples, teach, and baptize in his name.

Then, his last words are "behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." Obviously, something happened to his body physically because we can no longer see Jesus, but we are left with the promise that he is, and will always be, with us invisibly. His words bring us full circle to the promise before his birth that he would be "Emmanuel," meaning "God is with us."

Questions of the Week

- 1 Has there been a time(s) when you have doubted Jesus, God, or your faith? What brought you through that period?
- 2 Think about a time when you have experienced a sense of God or Jesus with you. Say a prayer of thanksgiving for that gift of awareness.

A Bible Study on the Joyful Mysteries: The Visitation

Have you ever wanted to grow in your understanding and devotion to the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary? Join Dr. Ben Akers and professors from the Augustine Institute Graduate School as they walk through these Biblical mysteries and seek to grow in understanding and love for Christ through them.

Saint Justin Martyr | Catholic Saints

Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. Elizabeth Klein to discuss St. Justin Martyr, an early Church martyr who wrote several significant Christian apologetic works. He sought the truth in other philosophies, drawing out what was true and good and relating it to Jesus Christ.
