Item 1

As summer approaches and many are off to their summer homes or for longer periods away from the parish..... Please remember that the work of the parish takes place 24 hours a day-7 days a week-365 days a year. Even though you might not be present at a particular Sunday or holy day Mass, or you may be away for the summer the parish depends on your weekly contributions to meet its bills and carry out its mission. Please send in your weekly envelopes or consider signing up for online giving- this takes the burden off you to remember to send in your make up contributions and helps us to better plan our cash flow.

Item 2

This Wednesday, July 17, the National Eucharistic Congress begins in Indianapolis, Indiana, The four Eucharistic pilgrimages from north, south, east and west of our country will have arrived in the city after having covered a great portion of the nation giving honor to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. I have followed the many stories of the various pilgrimages and have read of the many graces that both those on pilgrimage as well as those who have encountered the processions have received. I hope that these encounters with the Eucharistic Lord and the witness of the processions and pilgrims will awaken a deeper devotion to Our Lord present in the Blessed Sacrament and that those who do not believe in His Divine Presence will be brought to believe that He is truly present- BODY-BLOOD-SOUL and DIVINITY in the Eucharist!

O SACRAMENT MOST HOLY! O SACRAMENT DIVINE! ALL PRAISE and ALL THANKSGIVING IS EVERY MOMENT THINE!

What is the Anointing of the Sick?

Illness, suffering, and death are some of the greatest problems we face as humans. In the Anointing of the Sick, God offers us grace to strengthen us in illness and the priest can pray with us on behalf of the Church, in the midst of our suffering.

Prodigal Son

A look at the story of the prodigal son which highlights the rejection of the son's identity as son of his father.

Leave it All Behind

This Week's Readings at Mass

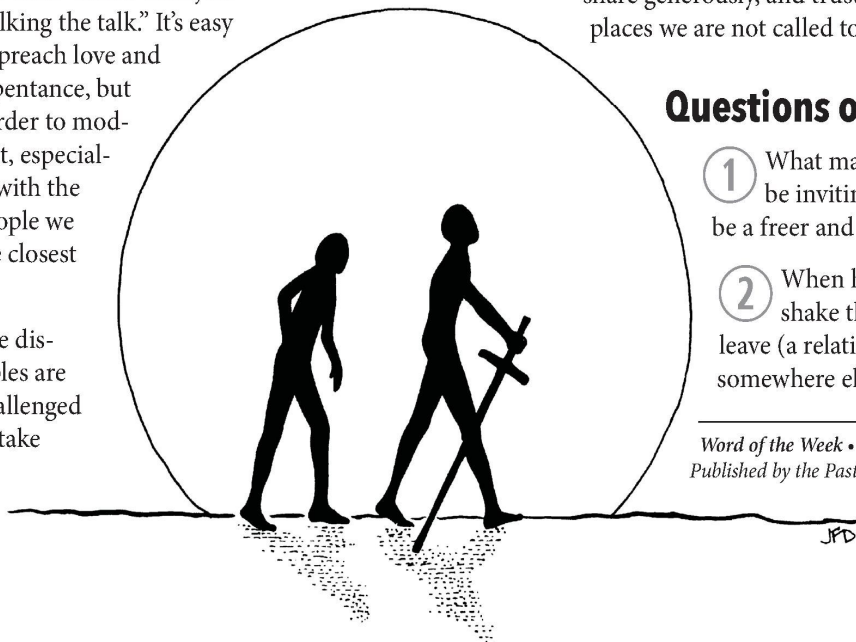

- ▶ Amos 7:12-15 - Amos called by God to prophecy
- ▶ Ephesians 1:3-14 - Blessing for Jew and Gentile
- ▶ Mark 6:7-13 - The mission of the Twelve

The instructions Jesus gives to the twelve apostles in this Gospel reading are still relevant for us today, even if we don't think we are called to leave our home and families to be traveling missionaries.

First, the note that Jesus sends disciples out two by two echoes throughout the rest of the New Testament. Why did Jesus want his disciples to travel in pairs? As a human himself, he recognized the value of companionship. We are social beings, and even introverts need the support, wisdom, and love of others. Being a disciple is challenging, and we can burn out quickly if we don't have others to help us on our journey. Also, a spouse (and St. Paul makes it clear that some of the pairs that were missionaries together were married couples), friend, or fellow disciple can be a sounding board, consultant, or trusted confidante as we navigate the questions and difficulties of our discipleship work.

Traveling in pairs or larger groups also forces people to confront their selfishness and practice "walking the walk" rather than just "talking the talk." It's easy to preach love and repentance, but harder to model it, especially with the people we are closest to.

The disciples are challenged to take

WE CAN'T BE CONCERNED ONLY WITH THE HERE AND NOW. WE MUST ENVISION WHAT LIES AHEAD! WALK WITH ME...

DON'T LOOK DOWN! JUST KEEP YOUR EYES ON THE HORIZON!

SHWASH!!

VISIONARIES PROBABLY SHOULD WEAR LIFE-PRESERVERS!

GASP!

© Jean Denton flock.pastoralcenter.com

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey besides a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money."

Sheepish Question:
What practical matters worry me as I keep my eyes on the Gospel's prize?

nothing for their journey but a walking stick. Talk about an exercise in trust and detachment! Just imagining setting out like that challenges us to evaluate what we are attached to materially.

Finally, Jesus teaches the disciples to appreciate and receive the gifts of those who treat them well and to walk away when they are not accepted. This is yet another invitation to trust: trust others who want to share generously, and trust that there are times and places we are not called to stay.

Questions of the Week

- 1 What material comforts might Jesus be inviting you to leave behind to be a freer and more faithful disciple?
- 2 When have you felt the call to shake the dust from your feet and leave (a relationship, job, etc.) to go somewhere else where you are welcome?
